

Hideko Hadzialic

Director

UNDP Representation Office in Tokyo

Hideko succeeded Tetsuo Kondo as the new Director, Representation Office in Tokyo as of 12 June 2023.

In 2019, she assumed the position of UNDP Resident Representative in Kuwait, and since April 2023, she has been functioning as both UNDP Resident Representative and United Nations Resident Coordinator, a.i.

Prior to that, she served as UNDP Deputy Country Director in Sudan (2017-2019), and the Management Advisor for the Office of the Bureau Director, the Bureau of Management at the UNDP Headquarters (2014-2017).

At UNDP, she also assumed the following posts: UNDP Deputy Resident Representative in Bhutan; Policy Network Manager for Millennium Development Goals at the Bureau for Development Policy, UNDP Headquarters; Programme Specialist at UNDP Iraq and Programme Officer at UNDP Bosnia and Herzegovina.

Hideko holds MPA (Master in Public Administration) from Kennedy School of Government, Harvard University.